

Train the Trainer

A one-day professional learning program to assist you to meet your students' creative industries ambitions by connecting you to the local industry, contemporary skills and opportunities.

Date: Friday 12 February 2021

Time: 9am – 5.00pm

Location: Adelaide Studios, 1 Mulberry Rd Glenside 5065

On arrival, please report to reception and you will be directed to the theatre

Cost: $65 + GST including morning & afternoon tea. Pre-payment is essential – see below.

The Train the trainer program will:

- Provide you with an overview of the local, national and global creative industries;
- introduce you to the local screen industry (production houses, games and SFX companies) exploring what these companies do and what skills they are seeking in the next generation. Companies participating include South Australian Film Corporation, Kojo, Epic Films, Mighty Kingdom and Rising Sun Pictures;
- connect you with leading editors, sound and camera operators to learn about the most current industry protocols in production and post production, equipment and software, including affordable alternatives you can introduce into your classroom.

Teachers are encouraged to stay on for the Teachers Ambassador session following the Train the trainer day to hear about the full AFF Youth 2021 program.

The full Train the trainer program will be available online on 2 February 2020 at <https://adelaidefilmfestival.org/aff-youth/festival-info/train-the-trainer/>

Pre-registration and payment is essential. If you haven't already, please complete the registration form.

Payment of $65 + GST to be made to:

Adelaide Film Festival

BSB: 085 005

A/c #: 55 089 1442

Please include attending teacher's name as reference in payment details

For further information please contact Gail Kovatseff, Adelaide Film Festival Programs, Audience and Industry Manager on 8394 2505 or

gail@adelaidefilmfestival.org

AFF Youth is the newest and youngest arm of the acclaimed Adelaide Film Festival, supported by the South Australian Department for Education. AFF Youth aims to prepare a new generation of bold content makers and brave audiences by fostering a creative career pathway and by showing young people the best of global content for youth.

The program will comprise screenings for schools and families and be accompanied by a substantial creative industries' program of workshops, forums Q&As and production opportunities.

AFF Youth is supported by:

Government of South Australia
Department for Education

<https://adelaidefilmfestival.org/aff-youth/>